F.R.E.E. (Fund to Restore an Educated Electorate), the publisher of this chart, was founded in 1980 by Johnny Stewart of Waco, Texas to educate the general public to understand their government and its money system.
F.R.E.E.'s educational materials create public awareness that both major parties are controlled at the top by an international network, principally the Bilderberg Group, The Trilateral Commission and their propaganda organ in the United States, the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR). F.R.E.E. informs citizens how these organizations control government policies through the placement of their members in positions of influence in government, media, financial and educational institutions and industry to bring about their objective of a global government and global debt-based monetary system.

This visualization was done in 2010 by a now-defunct organization called: The Fund to Restore an Educated Electorate. The chart shows how the Council on Foreign Relations, the Bilderberg Group, and the Trilateral Commission have maneuvered their members into the Presidency, Vice Presidency, Cabinet Secretaries, Senators, Congressman, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the FBI Directors, CIA Directors, and heads of the Federal Reserve and major banking institutions in both "Republican" and "Democrat" administrations going back decades.
